

I do not support a change in the no call list which is being recommended. Please keep this list intact as it is.